

Do Not Call has allowed the rights of the individual to preside over those of corporations. I do not feel that any company has the right to interrupt what is going on in my home. If I need a product or a service, I can seek it - I do not need to be solicited.